A Boy Believed to Have Also Perished in the Mapleton Fire.

Roof May Die.

A gang of Italians, under the direction of Cornellus Ferguson, began a search this morning for the two bodies believed to have been lost in the fire which destroyed the $18,000 residence of S. D. McClure, at Mapleton, in the town of New Utrecht, last night.

Early in the day the charred body of Leopold Clauslitzer was found.

Clauslitzer was thirty-one years old, single, and an artist by profession. His body was found under the stairway.

An Aged Woman's Adrol: Robbery of an Elizabeth House.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Oct. 7 .- The police of this city have in custody an aged and mysterious she came from, or anything of her past his-tory. She will only say that she is sixty-nine years old and that her name is Emma Smith. When arrested, she had over $100 in bills in her pockets, was richly dressed and wore a handsome gold watch and chata. In her dress was an extra pocket such as is used by shoplifters. She entered the house of George T. Chapman, Superlatendent of the New Jersey Traction Company at 122 Bond street, late yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Chapman found the aged thier ransacking the bureau for valuables.

ound the aged their ransacking the bureau for valuables.

Mrs. Chapman placed her back to the door and prevented the woman iron escaping until Supt. Chapman could be summoned.

When he arrived the woman begged to be released, saying she had only taken $1.25, which was in a purse on the mantel. She handed this to Mrs. Chapman, and the latter, moved to leniency by her appeals, let the woman depart. After she had gone it was discovered that she had again cleverly stolen the $1.25, which Mrs. Chapman had laid on a table.

The police were then notified, and Patrol.

Anton Herie, twent c-five years old, of 160 second street, jumped to a frightul death from the second story of St. Francis Hospital, 600 East Fifth street, early this morning. Herie had been brought to the hospitaliate yesterday afternoon suffering with some cerebral trouble. At 0 o'clock this morning, while the windows of the dormitory were opened for ventilation, Herie suddenly bounded from his cot and before the attendant who was present could interfere had disappeared through the window.

Few people were on the street at the time o witness the ghastly sight which followed. Herle, instead of falling to the sidewalk, was caught on the iron fence running the whole length of the bosnital's front His head was jammed in tight between the
